

THE MAGICAL GARDEN

BY CHILDBOOK.AI

Даша found a tiny green door behind the rosebush. She pushed it open and gasped. Inside was a garden filled with glowing flowers! A pink tulip waved at her. "Hello, Даша!" it chirped. "Welcome to the Magical Garden!" Даша giggled with delight. The flowers were singing a happy song. A sunflower bent down low. "Come play with us!" it said. Даша stepped inside carefully. The garden sparkled like stars. She knew this place was special.

The next morning, Даша rushed back to the garden. Everything had grown bigger overnight! The tulip was now tall as her knee. "We grow when friends visit," it explained. A blue daisy sprouted beside them. "Plant this seed," said the sunflower, giving Даша a golden seed. She dug a small hole and dropped it in. "Now wish!" said the flowers together. Даша closed her eyes tight. "I wish for more friends!" Suddenly, the seed began to glow brightly.

By afternoon, a bush covered in rainbow petals appeared where Даша planted the seed. Each petal was a different color! "Touch the red one," whispered the tulip. Даша touched it gently. Red butterflies appeared and danced around her head! She touched the blue petal next. Tiny blue birds sang sweet songs. The yellow petal made golden bees buzz happily. "This is amazing!" Даша laughed. The flowers clapped their leaves together. Her wish had come true in a magical way.

Every day after, Даша visited her magical garden. She watered the talking flowers and sang with them. The sunflower told funny jokes. The tulip taught her about clouds. The daisy showed her how to dance with the wind. When Даша felt sad, the flowers would glow warmly and cheer her up. "You're part of our garden family now," they said. Даша hugged the rainbow bush carefully. This magical place was her special sanctuary forever. She promised to visit every single day.
