

LUMI & MIA: A LITTLE ROBOT'S BIG ADVENTURE

BY CHILDBOOK.AI

In Mia's yard, beneath the old oak tree, a tiny robot blinked, "Oh, who might you be?" Mia gasped and knelt down with glee, "I'm Mia! Are you lost? Please talk to me!" Lumi's lights flashed blue, then bright green, "I'm Lumi! I woke up—what a wondrous scene!" "Let's be friends," said Mia with a grin, "Together, our great adventure can begin!"

Through the garden gate, tall hedges grew, Mia said, "Let's explore what's new!" They found a maze with paths so tricky, Lumi's compass spun round, quick and flicky. "This way!" beeped Lumi, arm outstretched wide, Mia laughed and skipped right by his side. Round every turn, they giggled and played, until a locked door blocked the way they'd made.

"A riddle!" said Lumi, "Let's give it a try." The door glowed with letters up in the sky. "Three shapes in a row, which one comes next?" Mia thought hard, then solved the text. "A circle, a square, then a star so bright!" Click! went the lock, opening into light. "We did it together!" Lumi cheered with delight, their teamwork had solved the tricky new sight.

Beyond the door, a garden of light, flowers glowed soft in the fading sunlight. "Let's head home now," Mia said with a smile, Lumi rolled beside her, mile after mile. "Best adventure ever!" Lumi beeped with cheer, Mia hugged her robot friend, so dear. "Tomorrow we'll find more surprises in store," they promised more adventures, forevermore.
