

MY LITTLE ENEMY

BY CHILDBOOK.AI

Cheryl and her best friend Mika raced through the rice fields every afternoon. 'I'll win the kite contest this year!' Cheryl laughed. 'Not if I fly higher!' Mika teased back. They argued about everything, but always ended up giggling together. In their little village, everyone knew Cheryl and Mika as the silliest, friendliest rivals around.

One sunny morning, Mika ran to Cheryl's house holding a letter. 'I got a scholarship! I'm moving to the city school!' she cheered. Cheryl's smile faded. 'You're leaving our village... and me?' she whispered. Mika hugged her tight. 'I'll still be your friend, promise!' But Cheryl felt a tiny knot of sadness grow inside her heart.

Months passed without letters. Cheryl practiced her embroidery and won first prize at the village fair. She felt proud, but lonely too. 'Mika would have loved seeing this,' she sighed. Meanwhile, Mika sat in her new school, missing the kites and rice fields. Both girls quietly wondered if their friendship had faded away forever.

During summer break, Mika returned to the village. She spotted Cheryl's embroidery hanging proudly at the market. 'You did this? It's amazing!' Mika gasped. Cheryl smiled shyly. 'I missed you, my little enemy.' They both laughed, hugging tightly. From then on, they cheered each other on, proving true friends stay close, no matter the distance.
