

GOLDILOCKS AND THE THREE BEARS

BY CHILDBOOK.AI

Deep in the forest, three bears lived in a cozy cottage. Papa Bear, Mama Bear, and Baby Bear made porridge for breakfast. "It's too hot!" said Baby Bear. "Let's walk while it cools," said Mama Bear. The three bears walked into the sunny forest together. Meanwhile, a little girl named Goldilocks wandered nearby. She had long blonde hair and loved exploring. She saw the cottage and knocked on the door. No answer! Goldilocks pushed the door open and peeked inside curiously.

Goldilocks saw three bowls of porridge on the table. She was very hungry! She tasted the biggest bowl. "Too hot!" she said. She tried the medium bowl. "Too cold!" she complained. Then she tasted the smallest bowl. "Just right!" Goldilocks smiled and ate it all up. Her tummy felt full and happy. But she didn't notice the empty bowl she left behind. Goldilocks looked around the cottage for more things to explore and discover.

Goldilocks found three chairs. She sat in the big chair. "Too hard!" She tried the medium chair. "Too soft!" The small chair felt perfect, but CRACK! It broke. "Oops!" said Goldilocks. She went upstairs and found three beds. The big bed was too hard. The medium bed was too soft. The small bed felt just right. Goldilocks yawned and fell fast asleep, tired from her forest adventure and all her exploring.

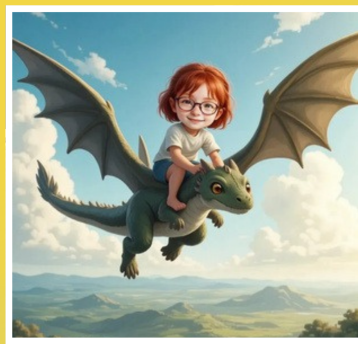

The three bears returned home. "Someone ate my porridge!" said Papa Bear. "Someone ate mine too!" said Mama Bear. "Someone ate all of mine!" cried Baby Bear. They saw the chairs. "Someone sat here!" they said. "My chair is broken!" Baby Bear was sad. Upstairs, they found Goldilocks sleeping. "Someone's in my bed!" said Baby Bear. Goldilocks woke up and saw the bears. "Sorry!" she cried and ran home. She learned to never enter someone's house without asking.
