

One sunny day, Aksel ran into the arms of his beloved grandmother, Amma. He gave her a big, warm hug, feeling safe and loved.

That evening, Aksel sat down at the table with his big family for a delicious dinner. They laughed, talked, and shared stories, creating wonderful memories together.

After dinner, Aksel couldn't contain his excitement. He turned on some lively music and started dancing with his family. Their laughter filled the room as they twirled and swayed to the rhythm.

As the night grew darker, Aksel knew it was time for bed. But before he closed his eyes, he whispered to himself, 'No matter where I go, Amma is always with me.' With that thought, he drifted off to sleep, ready for the adventures that awaited him.

The next morning, Aksel woke up with a smile on his face. He knew that today was a day for exploring. With Amma's love in his heart, he set off on an adventure, discovering new places, and meeting new friends.

In his room, Aksel had a special photograph of his family. He would often gaze at it, remembering the love and joy they shared. It was a reminder that no matter where he was, his family, especially Amma, was always by his side.

One day, Aksel sat down with Amma and asked her to tell him the story of his life. Amma smiled and began to share tales of his first steps, his mischievous adventures, and the love that surrounded him from the moment he was born.

As Aksel listened to Amma's stories, he felt a deep connection to his family's history. He realized that no matter where life took him, their love would always be with him. Aksel and Amma held hands, knowing that their bond would last forever.
