

OUR FATHER PRAYER...

Once upon a time in a small town, there lived two best friends named Matalyia and Jarred. They were both six years old and loved to play together every day. Matalyia had beautiful medium brown hair, while Jarred had short black hair.

One sunny day, as Matalyia and Jarred were playing in the park, they noticed something magical. A golden light shone from above, and they saw a majestic angel named Lambton descending from the sky. Lambton had a golden crown and a golden sash, and he held a star scepter in his hand.

Lambton smiled at Matalyia and Jarred and said, 'I have come to share a special prayer with you. It is called the Our Father Prayer.' Matalyia and Jarred listened intently as Lambton recited the prayer: 'Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.'

Lambton continued, 'Give us this day our daily bread.' Matalyia and Jarred understood that the prayer was asking for their daily needs to be met. They realized the importance of being grateful for the food they had every day.

The angel's voice grew softer as he said, 'And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.' Matalyia and Jarred learned that forgiveness was a powerful act of kindness. They promised to forgive others just as they would like to be forgiven.

Lambton warned them, 'And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.' Matalyia and Jarred understood that they should make good choices and stay away from things that could lead them astray. They knew that with the help of their prayers, they could resist temptation.

The angel's voice became louder and more powerful as he said, 'For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.' Matalyia and Jarred felt a sense of awe and reverence. They realized that God's kingdom was full of love, power, and eternal glory.

As Lambton disappeared back into the sky, Matalyia and Jarred held hands and thanked him for sharing the Our Father Prayer with them. From that day forward, they made it a habit to say the prayer every day. They felt closer to God and knew that their prayers would guide them on their journey through life.
