

MONSTER UNDER THE BED

by childbook.ai

Once upon a time, there was a little boy named Ryan. It was bedtime, and Ryan's mom tucked him into bed.

Ryan's room was dark, and he felt a little scared. He thought there might be a monster under his bed.

But Ryan was a brave boy. He took a deep breath and decided to be strong.

Ryan had a bright idea. He turned on his nightlight to make the room less scary.

Ryan decided to check under his bed for the monster. He slowly got down on his hands and knees.

To Ryan's surprise, there was no monster under his bed. Just some toys and dust bunnies.

Ryan realized that his imagination had made him scared. There was no monster after all!

To help him feel safe, Ryan's mom sang him a goodnight song. It made him feel warm and cozy.

With a smile on his face, Ryan closed his eyes and drifted off to sleep. He had sweet dreams all night long.

When Ryan woke up in the morning, the sun was shining through his window. He felt happy and proud.

From that day on, Ryan knew that there were no monsters under his bed. He was never afraid again.

Ryan became the bravest boy in the whole wide world. He knew that he could conquer any fear that came his way.
