

CLEANING IN CLASSROOM

by childbook.ai

Once upon a time in a small town, there was a classroom at Five Stars School. The classroom was messy with papers scattered all around, toys lying on the floor, and the chalkboard covered in dust. Lkbb, an 8-year-old girl, walked into the classroom and frowned at the sight.

Lkbb decided that the classroom needed to be cleaned up. She gathered her classmates and together they made a plan. They divided the tasks among themselves. Some started picking up the papers, some arranged the toys, and others wiped the chalkboard clean.

As they worked together, they sang cheerful songs and laughed. It didn't feel like work at all! They encouraged each other and soon the classroom started looking much better. Lk kb was happy to see the classroom becoming tidy and bright.

After a little while, the classroom was sparkling clean. The papers were neatly stacked, the toys were organized, and the chalkboard was shining. The teacher walked in and was amazed at the transformation. Lk kb and her classmates beamed with pride, knowing they had turned the messy classroom into a Five Stars classroom!
