

THE LITTLE TURTLE WHO LEARNED TO SPEAK UP

Once upon a time, in a peaceful pond nestled in the heart of the forest, there lived a little turtle named Timmy. Timmy was a kind and gentle turtle who loved swimming, basking in the sun, and playing with his pond pals. He had a cozy shell on his back, and he was content with his life. One sunny day, while

Timmy was taking a nap under a leafy tree, he heard a mysterious voice calling out to him from the other side of the pond.

Curious, Timmy slowly paddled towards the source of the voice. To his surprise, he discovered that it was coming from a group of friendly frogs. The frogs were excited to see Timmy and invited him to join their game of lily pad leapfrog. Timmy hesitated at first, feeling a little shy, but the frogs were so welcoming that he couldn't resist joining in the fun.

As they played, Timmy realized that he had so much fun when he spoke up and shared his ideas with his new froggy friends. He had never felt this happy and included before. From that day on, Timmy started to speak up more often, sharing his thoughts and feelings with his pond pals. He found that his friends appreciated his input and loved him for who he was.

Timmy's confidence grew, and he began to enjoy life even more. He learned that it's important to speak up and express oneself. Timmy and his new froggy friends continued to have wonderful adventures together, creating cherished memories and forming an unbreakable bond. Timmy's once-quiet pond echoed with laughter and joy, and he knew that he had found his voice and true happiness.
