Raelynn, Ryleigh, Aleigha, and their baby brother were playing in the backyard when their parents told them about the exciting news. 'We're going to Nene and Poppy's house for the weekend!' their mom announced. The children's eyes lit up with joy. They had heard so many wonderful stories about Nene and Poppy's house and couldn't wait to go.

The next day, the children helped pack their bags for the trip. They carefully selected their favorite toys and books to bring along. Aleigha insisted on bringing her stuffed bunny, while Raelynn and Ryleigh packed their drawing supplies. The baby brother clutched onto his beloved teddy bear, ready for the adventure.

As the car journey began, the children sang songs and played games to pass the time. They spotted fluffy clouds and tall trees along the way, making the trip feel like an exciting exploration. 'Are we there yet?' asked Aleigha, her eyes filled with curiosity. 'Not yet, but we're getting closer!' their dad replied with a smile.

Finally, the car pulled into Nene and Poppy's driveway. The children burst out of the car, eager to explore their grandparents' house. Nene and Poppy greeted them with warm hugs and smiles. The siblings were filled with happiness as they settled into their cozy rooms and began the fun-filled weekend at Nene and Poppy's house.
