

CLOSE YOUR EYES AND COUNT TO TEN

by childbook.ai

Gracie lived in a cozy cabin with her mom and their fluffy dog in the woods. One sunny day, she decided to explore the forest and play.

As Gracie wandered deeper, she realized she had lost her way back home. The trees seemed taller, and the sounds of the forest made her shiver with fear.

Tears welled up in Gracie's eyes, but then she remembered what her mom always said. 'Close your eyes, count to ten, and things will be better again.'

Gracie closed her eyes, counted to ten, and when she opened them, a beautiful bird was chirping nearby. She followed the bird's song and found her way back to the cabin. Mom and the dog were waiting, relieved and happy to see her safe and sound.
