

TREY'S FANTASTIC DAY

Trey laced up his sneakers tight, ready for a game of basketball. With the sun shining bright, he dribbled down the sidewalk, feeling the rhythm in every bounce. At the park, he joined a game, shooting hoops and making new friends. Trey's laughter filled the air, as he scored the winning basket.

After basketball, Trey's mom took him to the zoo. They saw lions roaring and monkeys swinging. Trey's eyes sparkled with wonder at the colorful parrots. His favorite was the tall, gentle giraffe, which he got to feed.

Next, Trey visited the library. He found a book about space and sat down to read. Surrounded by books, Trey imagined traveling to the stars. The library was a quiet place for big dreams.

To end the day, Trey walked his shih tzu around the block. The little dog wagged its tail, happy to be with Trey. They watched the sunset together, painting the sky orange and pink. It was a perfect end to a fantastic day.
