

GARBAGE TRUCKS

by childbook.ai

Vincent woke up early one sunny morning. He put on his favorite black t-shirt and ran outside. In the yard, he waved hello to the neighbors. Vincent loved mornings because he could see the garbage truck.

Vincent grabbed an empty can from the kitchen. He ran to the recycling bin and threw it in. He felt proud to help keep the environment clean. Vincent loved recycling just as much as he loved the garbage truck.

Vincent climbed up on the fence to get a better view. He could see the garbage truck coming closer. His heart raced with excitement. Bruno, the family bulldog, ran around the yard barking happily.

Vincent's mom stood at the front door. She smiled as she watched Vincent and Bruno. She loved seeing her son so happy. She waved hello to the garbage truck driver.

Vincent's mom waved hello from the front door.
Vincent waved too, perched on the fence. The garbage truck driver waved back with a big smile.
Bruno barked in excitement.

Bruno ran out into the front yard. He was very excited to see the garbage truck. The driver honked his horn, making Vincent laugh. Bruno wagged his tail and barked joyfully.

The garbage truck started to drive away. Vincent and his mom waved goodbye. Bruno sat next to them, still wagging his tail. It was a wonderful morning for Vincent and his family.
