

SAM'S KITCHEN SAFETY ADVENTURE

by childbook.ai

Sam was excited! Today was the day he would help his mom cook a special dinner. He put on his apron and ran into the kitchen, ready for an adventure. His mom smiled and welcomed him warmly. 'Let's start our cooking adventure, Sam!' she said.

'Before we start,' said Mom, 'we need to wash our hands!' Sam knew this was important to keep germs away. They both stood at the sink, happily washing their hands with soap. Bubbles were everywhere, making Sam giggle. 'Now, let's learn about using a knife safely,' Mom said.

Sam watched as Mom showed him how to use a knife safely. 'Always keep your fingers away from the blade,' she said. Sam carefully held a plastic knife and cut a soft banana, with his fingers safely tucked away. 'The stove is very hot, Sam,' Mom warned. 'We have to be careful and stay back.'

After cooking, it was time to clean up. Sam wiped the counters and washed the dishes, knowing that a clean kitchen was a safe kitchen. Dinner was ready! Sam felt proud of his work. As they sat down to eat, Mom smiled and said, 'Great job, Sam! You were safe and careful.'
