

STELLA THE STAR

by childbook.ai

Stella the Star was afraid of the dark. Every night, she would tremble and try to hide. Her light began to dim because of her fear. The other stars noticed but didn't know how to help. Stella felt so alone in the big, dark sky.

One night, the Maker saw that Stella's light had dimmed. He knew something was wrong. The Maker decided to visit Stella. He gently asked her why she was so afraid. Stella explained that the darkness made her feel small and scared.

The Maker smiled and told Stella that the light inside her was special. He said that her light could drive away the dark. Stella was surprised but felt a little braver. She decided to try shining her light again. Slowly, her light began to grow brighter.

Stella boldly shined her light for the people in the town. They looked up and saw her beautiful glow. The darkness didn't seem so scary anymore. Stella felt proud and happy. She learned that her light could make a big difference.
