

ADVENTURES OF GLUG GLUG

by James R Weimer & AI

In a big house by the salt lake, Jason lived happily.
One day he got a new friend, a snail called Glug Glug, who'd never bend. Glug Glug lived in a big tank, with Goldie the fish, quite a prank. Jason watched them every day, in their watery world, they'd play.

Jason cleaned the tank so bright, making sure it was just right. Glug Glug and Goldie swam around, in their shiny home, joy was found. Linda, Jason's mom, gave a cheer, 'Your pets are happy, my dear!'

One day, algae began to spread, covering the tank, turning it green. Glug Glug munched with all his might, but the algae gave him quite a fright. Jason saw the snail's hard work, 'I'll help you, Glug Glug, don't shirk!' Together they cleaned, side by side, making the tank a place of pride.

One morning, a bubble appeared, floating up, it was quite weird. Goldie and Glug Glug stared in awe, what was this thing they saw? Jason watched with curious eyes, 'Let's see what this bubble hides!' They poked and prodded, then it popped, and out came a tiny fish that hopped.

The tiny fish was named Bubbles, causing quite a few giggles. Goldie, Glug Glug, and Bubbles played, in their tank, they swam and swayed. Jason loved his new pet crew, every day there was something new. Linda agreed, 'These pets are special, indeed.'

One night, Glug Glug had a plan, to explore the world, he'd be the man. He climbed the tank, slow and steady, with Goldie and Bubbles ready. Jason woke up to an empty tank, 'Where are my pets?' his heart sank. He searched the room, to his delight, they hadn't gone far, just exploring the night.

Jason scooped them up with care, 'Back to the tank, you little pair!' Glug Glug, Goldie, and Bubbles too, safely returned, adventures through. Jason said, "Let's take Glug Glug to the church during the Blessing of the Animals" ceremony. We will have Glug Glug blessed, so he stays out of trouble. Father Moore chuckled, 'What a sight, I'll bless him before the night!'

One day, Goldie felt quite ill, lying still, against her will. Jason took her to the vet, hoping she'd be better yet. The vet said, 'Don't you worry, with care, she'll be back in a hurry.' Glug Glug and Bubbles waited in the tank, for their friend to return, they thanked.

Goldie came back, feeling great, Jason cheered, 'Let's celebrate!' Glug Glug and Bubbles swam with glee, their friend was back, happy as can be. Linda clapped, 'Goldie's return is quite a fact!' The tank was full of joy and cheer, with their friend, they had no fear.

Jason knew his pets were more, than just creatures, they were lore. Glug Glug, Goldie, and Bubbles too, were friends forever, tried and true. They'd share adventures, big and small, in their tank, they had it all. With Linda and brother by their side, in their home, they'd always reside.
