

HATTIE'S BIG MOVE

by childbook.ai

Hattie and Louise were playing in the sunny backyard. Papa came out with a big smile. 'We have exciting news!' he said. 'We're moving to Chicago!' Mama added. Hattie felt a mix of excitement and nervousness.

The family started packing their things. Hattie and Louise sorted through their toys. They talked about what Chicago might be like. 'I hope we make new friends,' said Louise. Papa told them about the big buildings and the snow.

The family drove for many hours. Hattie looked out the window at the changing scenery. They sang songs and played games in the car. Mama told stories about their new life in Chicago. Hattie felt a little more excited each mile.

Finally, they arrived in Chicago. The city was big and bustling. Hattie and Louise held hands as they explored their new neighborhood. They saw kids playing in the park and smiled. 'This is going to be an adventure,' said Hattie.
