

THE ROOM WITH THE GARDEN VIEW

Wendy was an 8-year-old girl who loved to look out of her bedroom window. Her room was empty, but the view was magical. Beyond the glass, a lush garden stretched into a rainforest. Wendy often imagined herself playing there with other children. She could see their silhouettes dancing and laughing among the trees.

One day, Wendy saw the children picking bright, colorful fruits from the trees. The garden seemed to be alive with joy and laughter. She wished she could join them and taste the sweet fruits. As the day ended, the children left the garden, waving goodbye. Wendy watched as the room grew darker, but the garden still sparkled under the moonlight.

Suddenly, Wendy noticed a new silhouette in the garden. It was a kind figure, walking gently among the trees. She felt a warm feeling in her heart as she realized it was Jesus. The next day, Wendy looked out the window and saw Jesus holding her hand. Together, they walked through the garden, surrounded by laughter and joy.

Wendy played with the other children, feeling happy and free. Jesus was with them, making the garden feel even more special. Above them, a sign read 'Kingdom of God,' and Wendy knew she was in a magical place. As the sun set, she returned to her room, but the garden was now a part of her heart. She knew she could always look out the window and find peace in the garden's view.
