

THE SIBLING SURPRISE

by childbook.ai

Once upon a time, Tejal discovered she was going to be a big sister. Her parents told her that someone special would soon join their family. Tejal felt excited but also a little worried. She wondered if she would have to share everything she had. Little did she know, this was the beginning of a new adventure.

When the baby finally arrived, Tejal was amazed at how small and cute they were. She quickly realized that her new sibling needed lots of attention and care. At first, it was hard for Tejal to share her toys and time with the baby. But then she had an idea; she could teach the baby how to play and grow! As they laughed and played together, Tejal learned that sharing could be fun.

As weeks passed, Tejal became more comfortable with her new role. There were days when the baby cried and fussed a lot. Even though it was tiring, Tejal loved being the big sister. She helped care for the baby by singing lullabies and reading stories. She realized that being a big sister was full of ups and downs, but it was a joyful journey.

One day, Tejal noticed something heartwarming. The baby could now smile and laugh at her silly faces! This made Tejal feel very proud and happy. She knew that she and her sibling were building a special bond. Together, they would create many more beautiful memories. And so, Tejal learned that being a big sister was one of life's greatest gifts.
