

THE LITTLE MERMAID

by childbook.ai

Ariel lived in a magnificent underwater kingdom with her father the sea king and six older sisters. Her long red hair flowed around her as she swam through colorful coral gardens. Unlike her sisters, Ariel was endlessly curious about the world above the waves. She collected human treasures that sank to the ocean floor, wondering about their purpose.

On her fifteenth birthday, Ariel was finally allowed to swim to the surface. Her heart raced as she broke through the waves and saw stars twinkling in the night sky. On a passing ship, she spotted a handsome prince celebrating his birthday. When a sudden storm sank the ship, Ariel rescued the unconscious prince and brought him safely to shore.

Delia

Ariel fell in love with the prince and longed to join his world. She visited the sea witch who offered her legs in exchange for her voice. The transformation was painful, but Ariel's determination was stronger. Though the prince befriended her, his heart belonged to the temple girl who had found him on the shore.

When Ariel discovered the temple girl was the prince's true love, her heart broke. Rather than harm the prince, she accepted her fate with grace. As dawn broke, Ariel transformed into a daughter of air instead of sea foam. Her kindness had earned her a chance to gain an eternal soul through good deeds.
