

BEFORE YOU CAME TO ME

Olivia giggled as she played in the soft clouds of heaven. The light was always golden, and the music was sweeter than anything. She felt warm and safe all the time. Jesus watched her from afar, smiling at her joy.

One day, Jesus walked toward little Olivia with a bright smile. His long brown hair shimmered in the heavenly light. "Hello, precious Olivia," He said warmly. Olivia ran to Him with outstretched arms.

Jesus scooped Olivia into His arms for the biggest hug. "I love you so much, little one," He whispered. Olivia nestled against His shoulder, feeling completely safe. His love wrapped around her like a warm blanket.

"I have a wonderful plan for you, Olivia," Jesus said gently. "I'm sending you to earth to a loving family." Olivia looked up with curious eyes. "They've been waiting just for you," He explained.

"What is earth like?" asked Olivia, twirling her light brown hair. Jesus smiled and described beautiful trees and oceans. "And families who love each other," He added. Olivia's eyes widened with wonder.

Jesus showed Olivia a picture of her future parents. They were preparing a room with tiny clothes and toys. "They already love you," Jesus told her. Olivia smiled at their happy faces.

"Will I see you on earth?" Olivia asked with worried eyes. Jesus touched her heart gently. "I'll always be right here," He promised. "And I'll watch over you every day."

Jesus gave Olivia one last hug before her journey began. "Remember how much I love you," He whispered. Olivia felt herself floating downward. The clouds of heaven slowly faded from view.

Olivia arrived on earth as a tiny baby. Her mother held her close and kissed her forehead. Her father wiped happy tears from his eyes. "Welcome home, Olivia," they whispered.

Olivia grew a little each day in her cozy home. Her mother sang sweet songs while rocking her. Her father read stories before bedtime. She felt loved just as Jesus had promised.

Sometimes when Olivia looked at the sky, she felt a familiar warmth. She couldn't remember heaven clearly anymore. But something in her heart still knew Jesus. His love still wrapped around her.

Olivia grew into a happy little girl with her loving family. She felt special and cherished every day. Sometimes she would look up and smile. She knew Jesus was still watching over her with love.
