

NIA AND THE CLOUD LADDER

by childbook.ai

One sunny afternoon, Nia sees a cloudy ladder drop from the sky into her backyard. She climbs up—step, step, step—and reaches Skyland, a magical place in the clouds!

Nia hears a soft “ting-ting” and finds a baby star, lost and scared. Nia promises to help Twinkle get back to Starland.

"Are you lost?" Nia asked the baby star, who responded with a faint "ting-ting." Twinkle brightened slightly when Nia offered to help find its home. Together they hopped from island to island, following a trail of stardust. Twinkle twinkled happily whenever they moved in the right direction.

Finally, they reached the edge of the skyland where the night sky began. Twinkle glowed brighter than ever, making excited "ting-ting" sounds. Nia lifted the baby star as high as she could, watching as it floated up to join its family. With a final "ting-ting" that sounded like "thank you," Twinkle took its place in the night sky.
