

LITTLE JOSHUA SEE

by childbook.ai

Morning sun peeps, Joshua peeks, "Wake up!" he calls, the whole house speaks.

Jumping with glee, tiny feet hit the floor,

"Mom! Dad! Let's play, and so much more!"

Baby Orion giggles, "Goo goo!" comes near.

"Adventure today?" says Mom, "Oh yes, my dear!"

"La la la!" sings Joshua, twirling around,
His voice fills the house, such a joyful sound.
Dad claps along, Mom joins the tune,
Orion smiles wide, it's only noon!
"Sing with me, brother!" Joshua cries,
Music together under blue skies.

At breakfast Joshua talks, questions galore,
"Why is the juice orange? Can I have more?"
Mom laughs, "You're curious, bright as the sun."
Dad pours milk, "Learning is fun!"
Orion babbles, cheeks puffed out wide,
Family together, love multiplied.

"Shoes on, coat zipped, let's go see!"

Joshua races, shouts, "Come with me!"

Mom carries Orion, following fast,

Dad grabs the ball, today will be a blast!

Sunshine above and grass so green,

A world waiting for Joshua to be seen.

Swings sway high, Joshua flings,
Dad pushes, "Fly like you have wings!"
Orion giggles, watching the show,
Mom takes a photo, "Look how you grow!"
Joshua laughs, "Push more, Dad, please!"
Family together, hearts at ease.

"Why is the sky so big and blue?"

Joshua wonders, thoughts anew.

Mom explains clouds, Dad points to the air,

Orion claps as if to declare,

"Curious Josh," says Dad with pride,

"With us, all answers, you'll never hide!"

Back at home, it's snack and tales,
Joshua munches, imagination sails.

"Once there was a bear," Mom begins to speak,
Orion listens, cookie on his cheek.

Dad joins the story, his voice so deep,
Adventures build before their sleep.

"Blocks!" Joshua cheers, stacking them high,
Orion grabs one, giving it a try.
Dad helps steady, Mom counts with glee,
"How many blocks?" asks Joshua with plea.
"One, two, three," counts Orion's hand,
Together they build a colorful land.

"Let's dance!" Joshua shouts, spinning around,

Music plays, feet tap the ground.

Dad twirls Mom, Orion claps in delight,

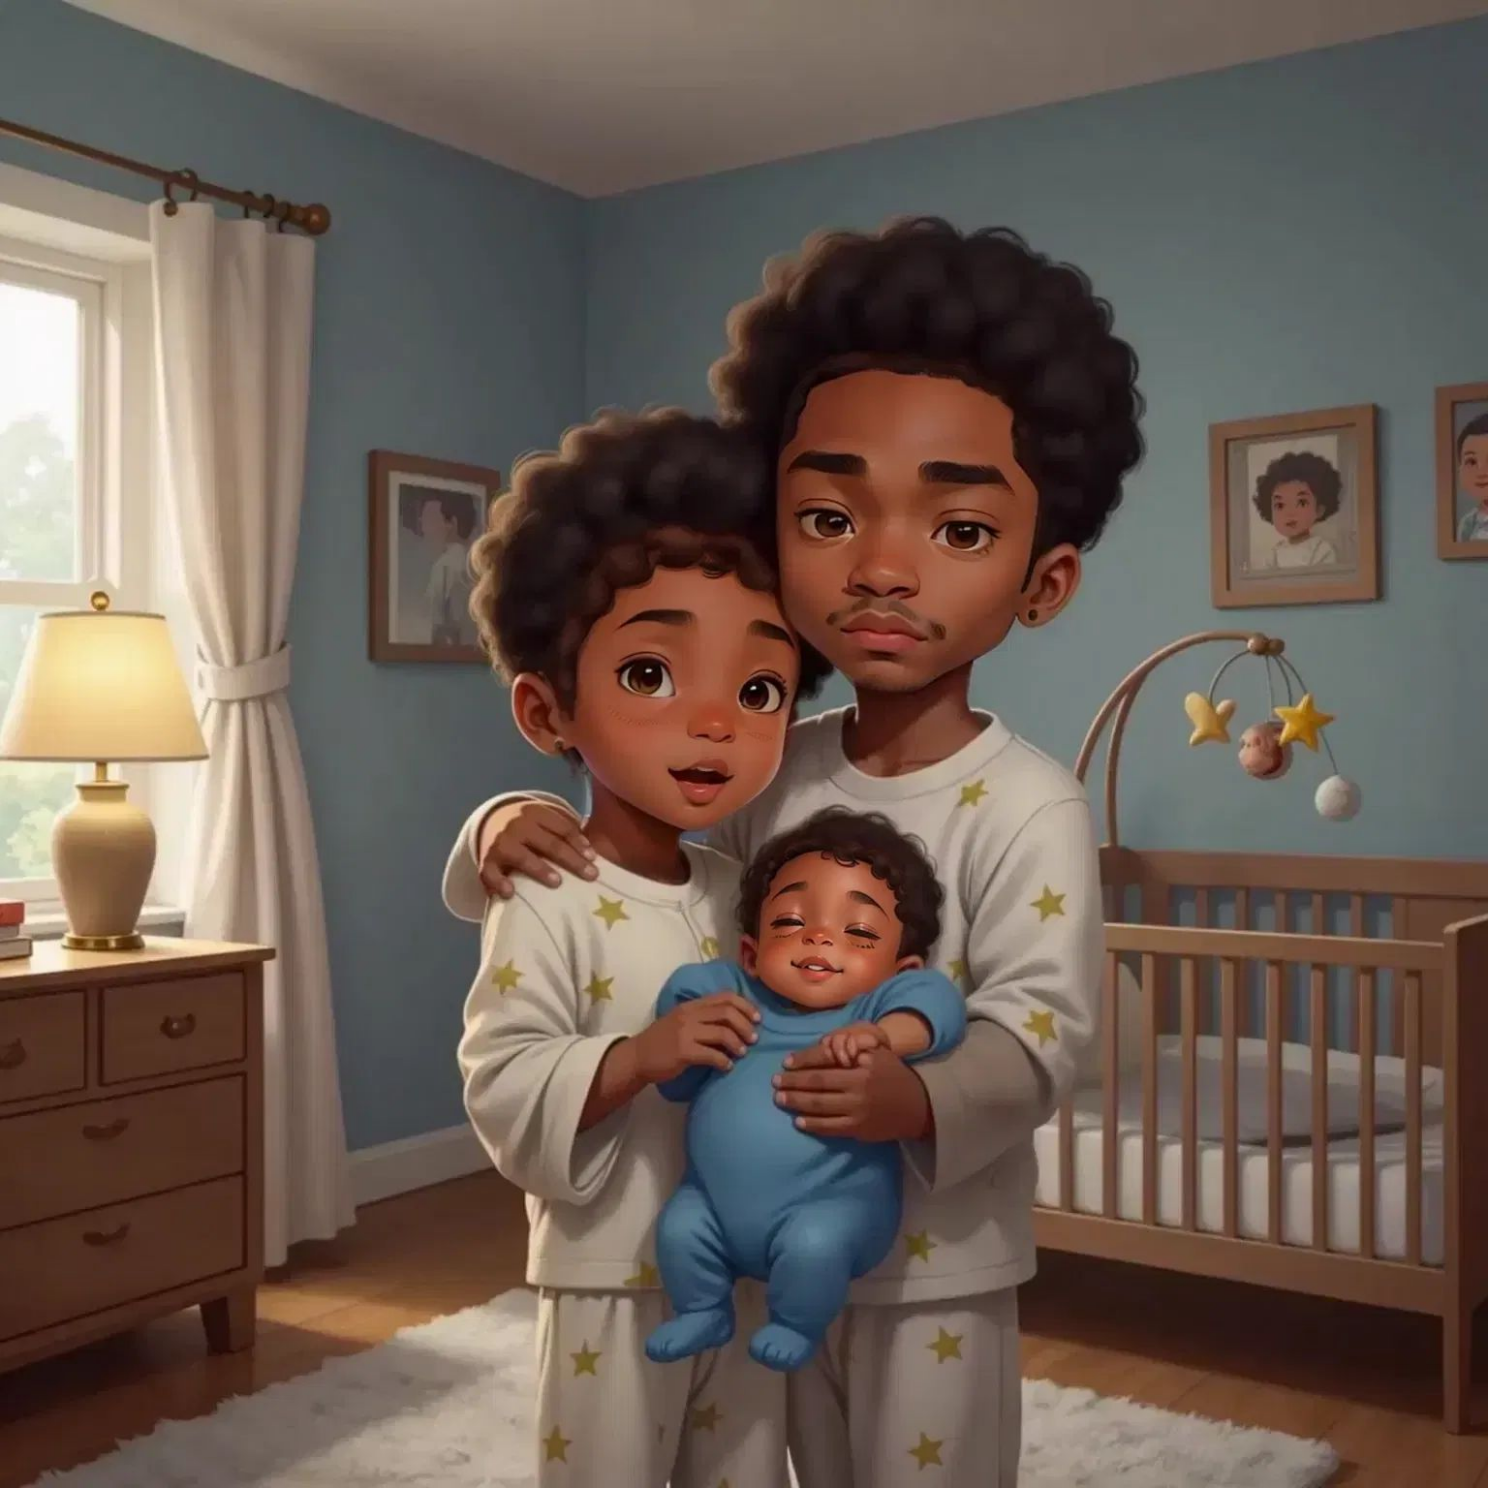

Laughter and joy fill the night.

"Keep going!" Joshua leads the crew,

Family fun from me to you.

Bath time bubbles, pajamas snug,
Joshua yawns, Mom gives a hug.
Orion cuddles, Dad turns off the light,
"Tomorrow we'll learn more," whispers goodnight.
In cozy beds, dreams take flight,
Curious Joshua sleeps, till morning light.
