To my dearest Nia Joy,

Nia, you are a bright light, full of laughter, kindness, and endless wonder. Watching you grow brings so much happiness, and I know you will do amazing things in this world.

Never stop dreaming, never stop believing, and always know how deeply you are loved.

With all my love,

Mary Vella

Page 3-4 Nia Joy's eyes sparkled with wonder as she saw the dazzling Disneyland entrance, glowing with lights and magic.

She bounced with excitement and her smile grew bigger.

Everywhere, colors shimmered, music played, and happy voices filled the air. She could hardly wait—her adventure was about to begin!

By Cinderella's castle, Nia Joy spotted Minnie and Mickey waving. She clapped and called, "Minnie! Mickey! Over here!"

Minnie twirled happily in her polka-dot dress, her bright red bow bouncing as she spun. She stopped with a cheerful giggle, her eyes twinkling like sunshine.

She smiled warmly at Nia Joy and said, "Oh my, what a beautiful name—Nia Joy! It sounds just like a name fit for a little star!"

Mickey gave a big thumbs-up and smiled.

"Are you ready for some fun?" he asked.

Nia Joy jumped up and down. "Yes! Yes!" she cheered.

She could hear happy music, smell yummy popcorn, and feel the magic all around her. Her adventure was just beginning!

They climbed into the Teacups, holding on tight.

Around and around they spun, laughing as the colors blurred like a rainbow.

"Faster!" they giggled, turning the wheel.

When the ride stopped, they wobbled out, still giggling. "Let's go again!"

Hand in hand, they walked through Fantasyland.

Mickey whispered, "Let's find secret doors!"

Nia Joy gasped. "Really?"

Minnie giggled. "Magic is everywhere!"

They peeked behind castles and fairy houses.

"There!" Mickey pointed to a tiny door.

Nia Joy reached out, smiling—Disneyland was full of surprises!

Minnie took Nia Joy's hand and led her to the wishing well.

"Let's make a wish!" she whispered with a smile.

They closed their eyes, held their hands together, and made a special wish.

Nia Joy closed her eyes. "I wish for more magical days!" she whispered.

Minnie smiled and tossed a shiny coin into the well. "Me too!" she said.

Sparkles danced in the air, carrying their wishes away.

Mickey handed Nia Joy a big cone of pink ice cream.
"A treat for our friend!" he cheered. Nia Joy giggled happily.

As the sun set, fireworks exploded into color. Minnie and Mickey held Nia Joy's hands, watching the sky together.
