

THE BUTTERFLY JOURNEY

by childbook.ai

Hadassa walked in the garden and spotted a tiny caterpillar. "Look, Mama!" she exclaimed, pointing with a chubby hand. The caterpillar slowly munched on a green leaf. Hadassa giggled and crouched down, her blonde hair shining in the sun. "He's so hungry!" she whispered, watching closely. Mama smiled, "He's getting ready for a big change."

The next day, Hadassa returned to the spot and gasped. The caterpillar was now wrapped in a shiny cocoon! "Where did he go?" she wondered, puzzled. Mama explained, "He's hiding to become something new." Hadassa leaned closer, curious about the secret change. "Goodnight, little friend," she whispered softly.

One morning, Hadassa saw the cocoon wiggling. "Mama, it's moving!" she called excitedly. The shell cracked and out came a butterfly with colorful wings. "Wow!" Hadassa cheered, eyes wide with wonder. The butterfly fluttered its wings to dry in the warm sunlight. "It's beautiful, just like you," Mama said, hugging her.

The butterfly lifted off and danced through the air. Hadassa waved, "Goodbye, butterfly! Be brave!" She watched as it joined many other butterflies in the sky. "They're taking a long journey together," Mama shared. Hadassa smiled, learning that change takes courage. "One day, I'll be brave too," she whispered proudly.
