To My Sweet Alexander and His Wonderful Daddy

Happy Father's Day to my precious little boy and the incredible daddy who fills your world with love and laughter. Alexander, your tiny hands reach for Daddy, your eyes sparkle when he lifts you high, and your giggles light up the room when he plays your favorite games. Every cuddle, every smile, every shared adventure deepens the beautiful bond between you.

Daddy is your safe place, your greatest cheerleader, and the one who will always hold your hand through life's little and big moments. He teaches you, protects you, and most of all, loves you beyond words. Watching you both together is the most heartwarming sight, and I am grateful every day that you have each other.

With all my love,

Mummy

Every afternoon, up on Daddy's lap, Alexander climbs with a wiggle and clap.

Daddy's wheelchair rolls to their nook, "Ready, explorer? Let's pick a book!"

Soon cozy and close,

they both laugh and look.

Daddy holds out two stories, big and bright.
Alexander reaches for the largest with delight.

“A top choice, my clever guy!” Daddy grins wide with sparkle in his eye.

Daddy's voice floats like a tune, up and down,
Knights and stars twirl and spin all through town.
Alexander's fingers trace every page,
Eyes wide with wonder, a world to engage.
Stories take flight, adventures grow bold,
Magic unfolds in the tales Daddy told.

Outside, the playground calls in the breeze,

Alexander climbs up, swift and with ease.

Down the slide, he zooms—whoosh!—super fast,

“Like a rocket!” cheers Daddy, having a blast.

Alexander waves, hoping the fun will last.
