

FATIMA AND HER PARROT

BY CHILDBOOK.AI

Fatima came home with a bright green parrot. She smiled and said, "I'll call you Meethu!" Meethu chirped happily. Fatima gently fed her seeds. "Let's be friends forever!" Fatima whispered. Meethu fluttered her wings in reply.

Every day, Fatima spoke to Meethu in Urdu. "Assalamualaikum, Meethu!" she greeted her. Meethu listened closely and sometimes tried repeating words. "You're so clever!" cheered Fatima. They laughed and played together every afternoon. Meethu started saying, "Shukriya, Fatima!"

Fatima taught Meethu to say kind words. Meethu loved making Fatima smile with new phrases. One day, Fatima felt sad about her homework. Meethu squawked, "You can do it, Fatima!" Fatima laughed and hugged her parrot close. Meethu cheered her up right away.

One evening, Fatima heard a strange noise outside. Meethu quickly chirped a warning, "Be careful, Fatima!" Fatima felt safe with her friend nearby. She peeked out and saw nothing was wrong. "Thank you, Meethu," she said. Together, they felt brave and happy.
