

YOU ARE THE GREATEST

BY CHILDBOOK.AI

Addie giggled as flour fell—pat-a-cake time with a noisy yell! Sophie the pup wagged her tail and barked, sniffing the flour where Addie had parked. "Oh Addie, you're a whirlwind," said Daddy, laughing at the mess she'd twirled in. "You are the greatest at making a mess!" said Big Sister, trying not to stress.

Addie drummed with spoons on every tin, splash went the pans—what a joyful din! Mommy covered her ears but grinned, "My, Addie, the fun you begin!" Sophie howled, dancing around the chair; Addie laughed, making music everywhere. "You're the greatest noisemaker, that's quite clear!" Big Sister cheered so Addie could hear.

Addie crawled under beds, looking for fun, with Sophie close by, on the run. Big Sister peeked, "What do you spy?" As Addie squealed, "A lost sock, oh my!" Daddy chuckled from the doorway, "Little explorer, you make our day!" Mommy clapped, "You find treasures, dear." "Greatest at exploring!" rang a cheer.

With blocks and books, Addie built her tower so high, Sophie watched it wobble—oh my, oh my! Mommy steadied one side, Daddy helped too, Big Sister cheered, "We believe in you!" Addie grinned, placing the final block just right. "You're the greatest tower builder in sight!" said Daddy that night.

Addie dipped her hands in paint so blue, Sophie's nose soon matched the hue. Mommy gasped but had to smile, "What a creative, messy style!" Big Sister joined with a brush and cheer, and Daddy drew a silly beard near. "The greatest little artist is you, Addie dear!"

Addie's laugh echoed through every wall—her giggles and snorts delighted all. Sophie rolled on her back with a bark, Mommy's grin was bright as a spark. Big Sister snorted, Daddy joined in, soon laughter bounced throughout their din. "Greatest giggler in the whole wide place!" Mommy kissed Addie's sticky face.

Teddy bears, blankets, and food on the floor, Addie invited everyone to explore. "Let's have a picnic!" she sang with glee, Sophie sniffed sandwiches busily. Big Sister poured juice, careful not to spill, Daddy juggled apples with a clownish skill. "You're the greatest picnic planner we see!" Mommy beamed joyfully.

Addie twirled in Mommy's red, sparkly scarf, Sophie wore Daddy's hat, looking quite daft. Big Sister marched in shoes so big, Addie clapped and did a jig. "What a parade!" cheered Daddy loud, Mommy snapped photos, so very proud. "Greatest at dressing up, that's Addie today!" the family all would say.

Under the table, behind the chair, Addie hid giggling, pulling Sophie's ear. Big Sister counted, "Ready or not!" Daddy peeked in every spot. Mommy looked under blankets and then—"Found you!" she cheered, again and again. "You're the greatest at hiding away!" the family laughed in playful array.

Addie grabbed dough and sprinkled in cheer, Sophie licked crumbs, drawing near. Mommy measured, Daddy stirred with pride, Big Sister shaped cookies wide and wide. "Oven's hot! Stand back," Daddy warned. Soon sweet smells from cookies adorned. "Greatest at baking and tasting, it's true!" Mommy hugged Addie for all she could do.

Addie bounced onto her bed with a leap, Sophie snuggled close, ready for sleep. Big Sister read stories, soft and slow, Mommy cuddled Addie, whispering low. Daddy tucked her in with a kiss, "Greatest of all, never forget this!" Addie yawned under starry light, "I am the greatest—goodnight, goodnight!"
