

CELLS AT WORK!

BY CHILDBOOK.AI

Red Blood Cell hurried through the bustling blood vessel. White Blood Cell waved and asked, "Need help?" Red Blood Cell smiled, "Yes, let's deliver this oxygen!" Together, they zoomed past platelets. Their teamwork made the job super fast. Afterwards, they laughed together under the plasma river.

"Look out, germs ahead!" called White Blood Cell. He bravely charged forward while Red Blood Cell cheered, "You can do it!" The germs got repeatedly stabbed. "Thank you for keeping everyone safe," Red Blood Cell beamed. White Blood cell blushed and said "it's only..my duty"

Red Blood Cell gathered her courage. "White Blood Cell, will you be my partner forever?" she asked. White Blood Cell's eyes sparkled, "Yes!" Their friends made a circle, singing happily. Red blood cell giggled joyfully. The body celebrated their friendship and love.

Everyone gathered as Red and White Blood Cell stood together. Friends tossed confetti and sang, "Hooray for teamwork!" Red Blood Cell whispered, "I'm so happy." White Blood Cell held her hand, smiling, "Me too!" They danced with their friends all night. The body felt even healthier, thanks to them.
